WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1899.

Where are our active electriclans? Hawaii is behind the times to experiments with wireless telegraphy.

Another Filipina capital has been captured. Aguinaldo seems to be practising for a theatrical the South after the war. The tour of on- night stands again with a revolution on foot, trol the territory on American Try annexation for revolutions lines whether present office-holders accomplished with at force of like it or not

With the Hawaiian Government the question of "Why the September elections?" stands on a par with "Why is a crow?" "Because"

A man's fighting capacity should never be ganged by the hay scales. Shafter would out weigh Robsevelt and Funston put together.

If British merchants give many more steel contracts to Americans hanging from the rafters are flags, been "out in the meadow raking pennants, lanterns and wreaths of larger in the meadow raking hanging from the rafters are flags." History is forever repeating itself and it is possible that stion party will be started in the British Isles.

Aggexation has brought all the comforts of home, even to the in electric lights. The whole right noonday minstrel street parade. Barnam's circus is the only thing now lacking.

The receipt by Minister Damon of a decoration from the French Government is a pleasant recognition of a gentleman whom the prople of this territory hold in high respect.

Secretary Meikeljohn says that the Chinese exclusion law does not extra charge. apply to insular possessions, but it does apply to Hawaii. Therefor Hawaii is not an insular pos session-it is a territory.

Admiral Dewsy,s decision to go home by way of Suez make him liable to the charge that he is afraid-of b ing talked to death And the chances are ten to one

Mr. Hamaker of Pennsylvania who sports a beard 41 inches long denies that he ever voted other and deems it necessary to place than a Republican ticket. As troops at Burke and Mullan to than a Republican ticket. As Mr. Hamaker has proved an alibi on Kansas, his statement is said to be quite generally accepted.

The German Reichstag is considering a proposition to appropriate $300,000 for the expenses of an Autoretic polar expedition. Someone must pay the bills for hasting up more land for the nations of the world to squabble

Brigadier General Funston says that he he does not care for poli tical honors, but he does request that his father be returned t Congress. As the father is not as popular as the son, the citizens June 7. of Kausas are given an opportunity to prove their real love for the G neral and their confidence in his opiniona.

Ex-Gov roor Boutwell of Massachusetts says that between Agninalds and President McKinley, on board the French second-class Aggis is right and the President equiser d'Assas without any cere is wrong. Bout well has not failel to give any good remon why he should not be dealt with as a traiter to his country more treact - Raw, firm; tair r-fining, 4 1-8c.; erous than the American solder ses engar, de. God save the Queen. The civi lized people of the world are as one nation when it comes to doing honor to the noble ruler of Great Britain. Dip'omatic bick ering and national feuds pale into insignificance on a least one day of the year, when the people in all Per year, postpaid, to America, Canada or Mexico, 10 00 climes find pleasure in offering proper recognition to Queen Victoria whose beneficent power is shared not alone by the Britons.

It is at least mighty poor taste for Hawaiian appexationists, who maintain that this country was not possessed by the United States by force of arms, to talk about carpet baggers and make local comparisons with conditions in United States was requested to assume control in Hawaii and O m Paul is in his element the American citizens will con

VICTORIAN BALL TONIGHT.

The drill shed is beautifully lecorated for the dance in celebration of Queen Victoria's birthday this evening. Above the stage is a design of the Royal arms of England with the Shamrock and Thistle, while to the sides and at the rear are English and American flags. Palms and other plants abound on the stage.

Along on the side walls are the flags of various nations with here and there a touch of green, while

Those who intend going to the ball tonight would do well to re-member the following points: The public entrance will be be-weep the fept and the shed. Tickets will be for sale at the Quintette club will be present. There will be fifte-n dances. No Clipper is. intermission for supper.
